

Chattahoochee River

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Chattahoochee River
National Recreation Area
Georgia

A Great Adventure For The Entire Family

Owl Prowl

February 24, 2007
6:30 p.m. -9:30 p.m.

8615 Barnwell Rd.
Chattahoochee River Environmental Education Center
One mile north of Holcomb Bridge Road.

---

Story telling, guided night hikes, songs to sing around the campfire, marshmallows to roast, nocturnal wildlife sights and sounds, and the night time beauty of the Chattahoochee to enjoy. Live owl program courtesy of the Chattahoochee Nature Center.

Wear warm, comfortable outdoor clothes and shoes suitable for walking on a forest trail. A scarf, hat, and gloves might be a good idea. Don't forget your flashlight. We will, of course, have hot apple cider.

Free to the public, but reservations are required. Make your reservations today by calling 678-538-1200. Don't miss this great evening of family fun.

